

The cases will follow the order listed below:

1. Swearing in of the Jury.
2. Prosecution's opening statement
3. Defense's opening statement (or see below, there's an option to delay)
4. Prosecution witness 1-3 (extra are fine)
  - a. Questioned by prosecution first
  - b. Questioned by defense second
  - c. Prosecution may "re direct" (question again) (not required)
5. Prosecution rests
6. Defense may give opening statement now (or at the beginning of the trial, step 2)
7. Defense witness 1-3 (extras are fine)
  - a. Questioned by defense first
  - b. Questioned by prosecution second
  - c. Defense may "re direct" (question again) (not required)
8. Defense rests
9. Prosecution closing statement
10. Defense closing statements
11. Jury* deliberates
12. Jury returns a verdict

Exhibits/Evidence:

The attorneys should introduce the exhibits whenever it fits best. In an opening or closing statement or during the questioning of a witness.

Objections:

Attorneys should look over the list of objections they can make. Possibly even print it out and bring it to court. Attorneys can object during the questioning of witnesses.

*Jury will be made up of other Law and Order PBL groups.